Federal Mission

Maintains well-trained, well-equipped units available for prompt mobilization during war. Enforces federal authority, suppresses insurrection and defends the nation when mobilized by the president, Congress or both. Units augment the Air Force by participating in operations and exercises worldwide by direction of the air staff, major commands or joint/unified commands.

State Mission

Provides assistance during national emergencies, such as natural disasters and civil disturbances, when not mobilized or under federal control. Under state law, provides protection of life and property, and preserves peace, order and public safety. Commanded by the governors of the 50 states, Puerto Rico, Guam, the Virgin Islands and the commanding general of the District of Columbia. Each governor is represented in the state or territory chain of command by an adjutant general. The ANG Readiness Center is a field operating agency.
